Why el Conquistador?

The founders of this city-within-a-city which Bryan Adams High School serves gave Spanish names to its principal shopping centers—Casa View and Casa Linda—as well as to scores of its streets, and merchants here stage seasonal fiestas.

As an integral part of a community with such a motif, it is only natural that we should pay tribute to our Spanish heritage.

This we are glad to do. We have named our yearbook el Conquistador and our newspaper el Cuguar. The latter, with its anglicized spelling of Cougar, is also our official mascot, emblematic of the king of animals native to the Western Hemisphere.

El Conquistador honors an heroic breed of supermen unique in the annals of world history. So strongly were they convinced of their invincibility they in fact became invincible. Obsessed with the determination to spread the "true religion" and extend the dominion of their monarchs—with lust of gold as an added incentive—they overcame astronomical odds and conquered a bright new world.

We as the staff members of this first edition of el Conquistador may not hope to conquer new worlds, but we can at least look skyward.

BRYAN ADAMS

Our school proudly bears the name of Bryan Adams, Secretary-Business Manager of the Dallas Public Schools from 1943 until his untimely death in 1955.

On the occasion of the dedication of Bryan Adams High School last November, Superintendent W. T. White paid the following informal yet eloquent tribute to our namesake.

DR. WHITE'S EULOGY

I have the pleasant opportunity to say a word about Bryan Adams. It's difficult because it isn't easy to know which one to choose. Throughout a long period of time (which now seems short) as we worked together, Mr. Adams was right in the middle of the planning, the execution, and the administration of the Dallas Public School system.

But that wasn't the thing we valued him most for, though the type of service that he gave was unexcelled. We valued Bryan most because he was Bryan. I never did hear anybody except someone who didn't know him very well, or someone who was referring to him in a formal situation, call him Mr. Adams. He deserved the title all right, but we admired him and enjoyed him so much that it was always Bryan.

If there was some job to be done that required tact and good judgment, it usually ended up with, "well, let Bryan do that."

I never saw Bryan Adams when he wasn't optimistic. I don't think that I ever saw him when he wasn't happy. And his influence in the school system was reflected and is reflected now in a thousand ways that he would never have imagined.

Even to the end of his days he never did admit that he was very sick. He was the most courageous, most admirable, the most lovable man I just about ever knew; so that when the naming of this school came up, the Board of Education spontaneously thought of the name Bryan Adams. And those of us who continue here shall treasure as long as we live our association with and memories of Bryan. We are lot better folks because we had him for our friend . . .

Mr. Thompson, no finer man ever lived and no one deserved more to have his memory established in perpetuity in a school building than Bryan Adams.

DEDICATION

This book is proudly dedicated to our first conquistador. His was the task of converting a massive structure of brick and concrete and steel, located in an erst-while cotton patch and peopled by fewer than eight hundred newly-arrived pupils and teachers, into a dynamic senior high school. That he has accomplished, and briefly. The conquistador to whose inspiring leadership we are indebted is our principal,

History Assembly

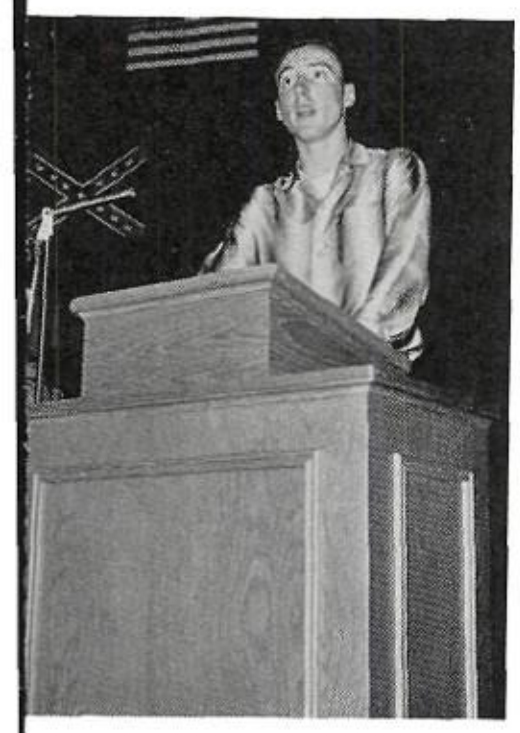
HISTORY ASSEMBLY—MARCH 9, 1958

The theme of the History Assembly was "Texas under six flags." The entire Historical Society was seated on stage. The officers were introduced to the audience. There were six speeches given by prominent members of the Society each of which was on one of the six flags under which Texas has been ruled.

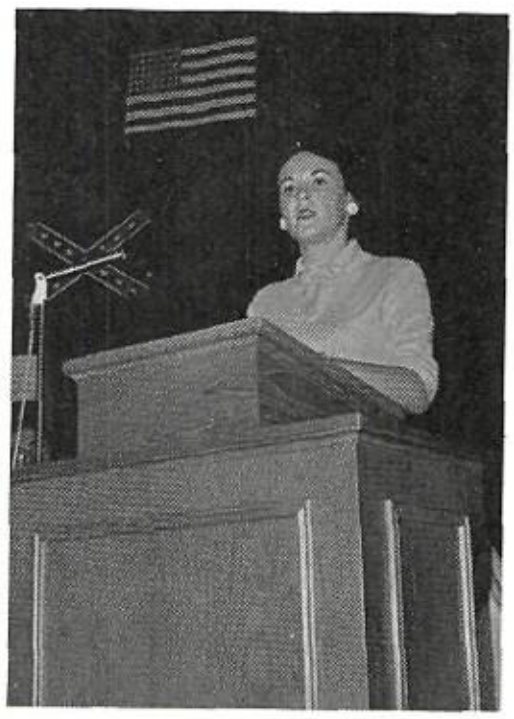
They were: Spanish, Virginia Tucker; French, Ivy Conner; as a republic, C. J. Cochran; Mexican, Ann Stephenson; Confederacy, Tom Moore; Old Glory, Dennis Lee. The main speaker was a very prominent Texan, Barefoot Sanders. Mr. Sanders spoke on Texas through the ages.

To close the program the musical department under the direction of Mr. Willis Irwin, sang three selections having to do with Texas, and closing with "Texas, Our Texas."



Ivy Conner speaks on Texas under the French rule.

Mr. Thompson introduces Edwin Cook, president of the Historical Society.



Virginia Tucker speaks on Texas under the Spanish rule.

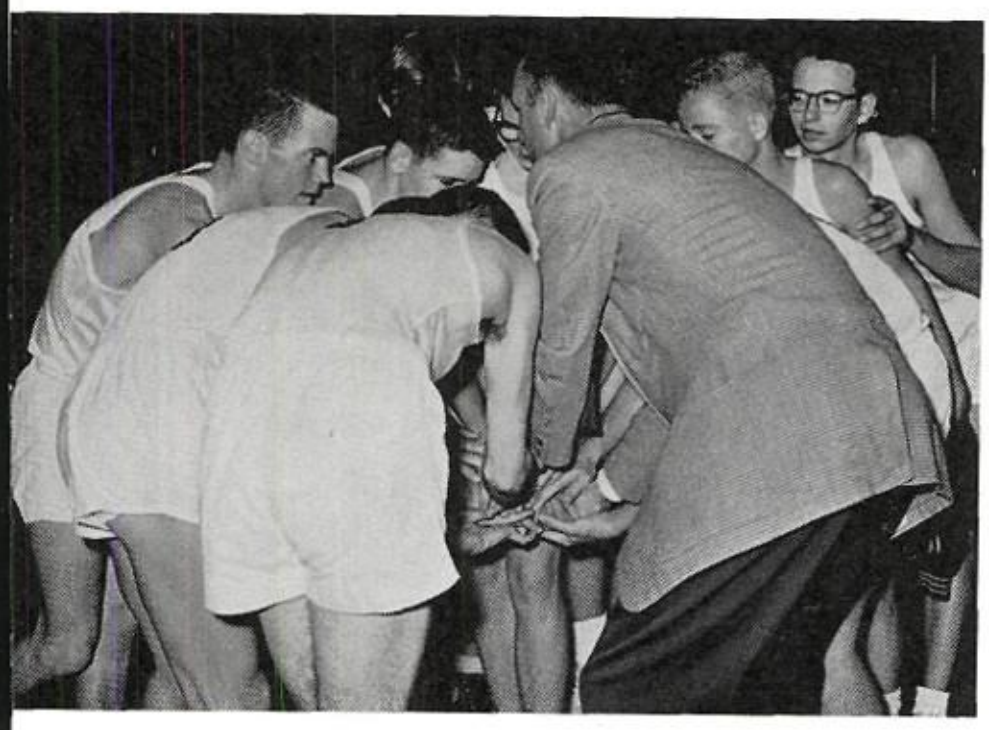
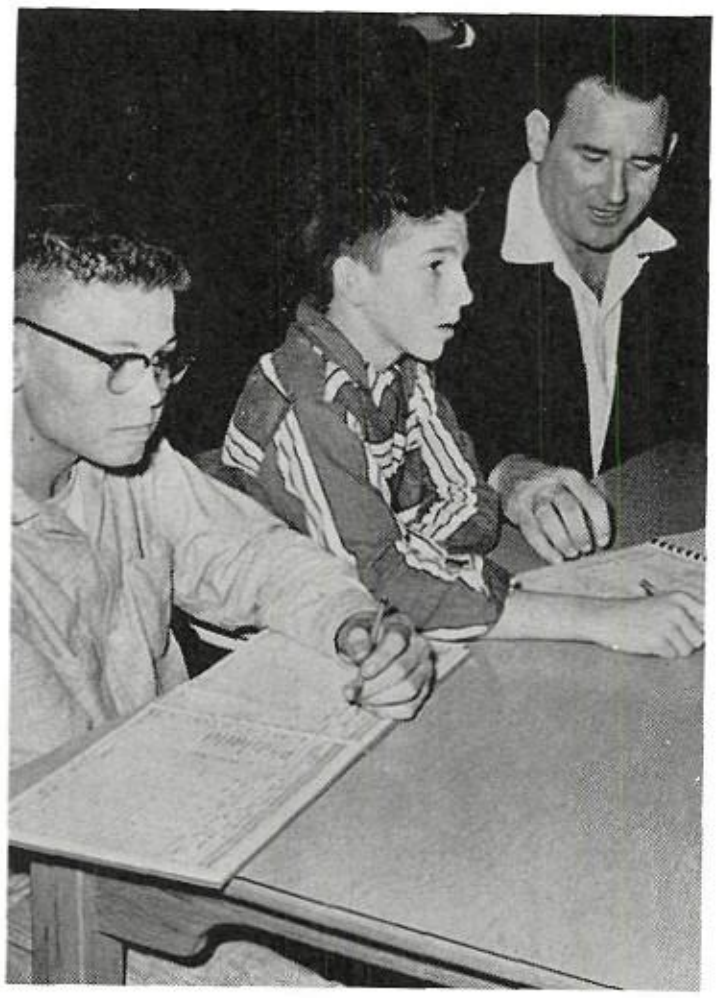
Billy Tillman keeps that ball and goes after two more points for the Cougars "B" team.

The Cougars "B" team basketball squad, under the supervision of Coach Dais, gained valuable experience in its games this year.

All the different events in sports this year were effected by this being our first year and they were not able to compete in city competition. The "B" team did make a good name for itself against other "B" teams and schools from surrounding towns.



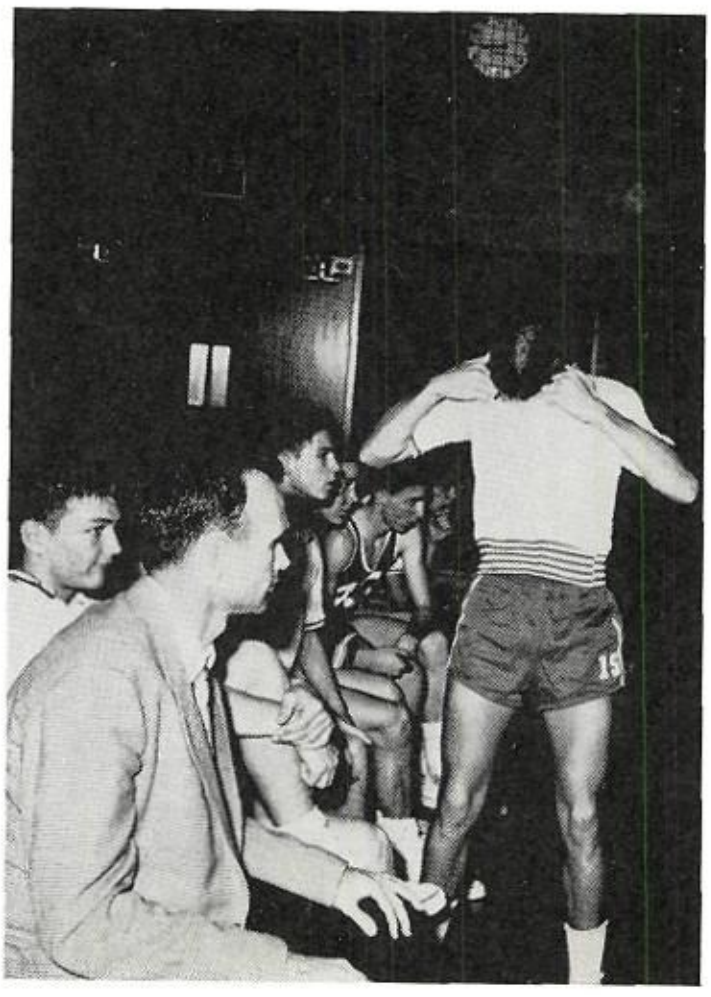
The "B" team huddles up before one of its games for last-minute instructions from Coach Rowland.



Coach Batchelor helping Mark Hoffman keep score, or is Mark helping Coach Batchelor?

Basketball Candid Shots

A big crowd shows up for the Cougar's basketball games.



Time out for Woerner to go in, or is he camera shy?

Track Team 1958

The Bryan Adams track team was not scheduled to compete for points in track meets this year, because of this being our first year. Tuesday, March 4, the team had a track meet with Samuells, South Oak Cliff, and Sunset High Schools at Sprague Field. Tech, Adamson, South Oak Cliff, and Bryan Adams met at Sprague Field, March 11. On March 18 the Cougars met Sunset, Tech, and Woodrow Wilson. Both meets took place at Sprague Field. These track events provided a lot of experience which will stand our boys in good stead next year.

Baseball Team 1958

BASEBALL SEASON LOOKS BRIGHT FOR THE COUGARS

The baseball season had not begun when the yearbook, el Conquistador, had gone to press. The boys and the coach are looking forward to a thrill packed season and all of the valuable experience that will prove to be very helpful for next year's games. The team is mostly sophomores so you can see that bright prospects lay ahead for the next two years to come. Coach Batchelor and the boys are working hard to provide an exciting baseball season for all Cougar fans.

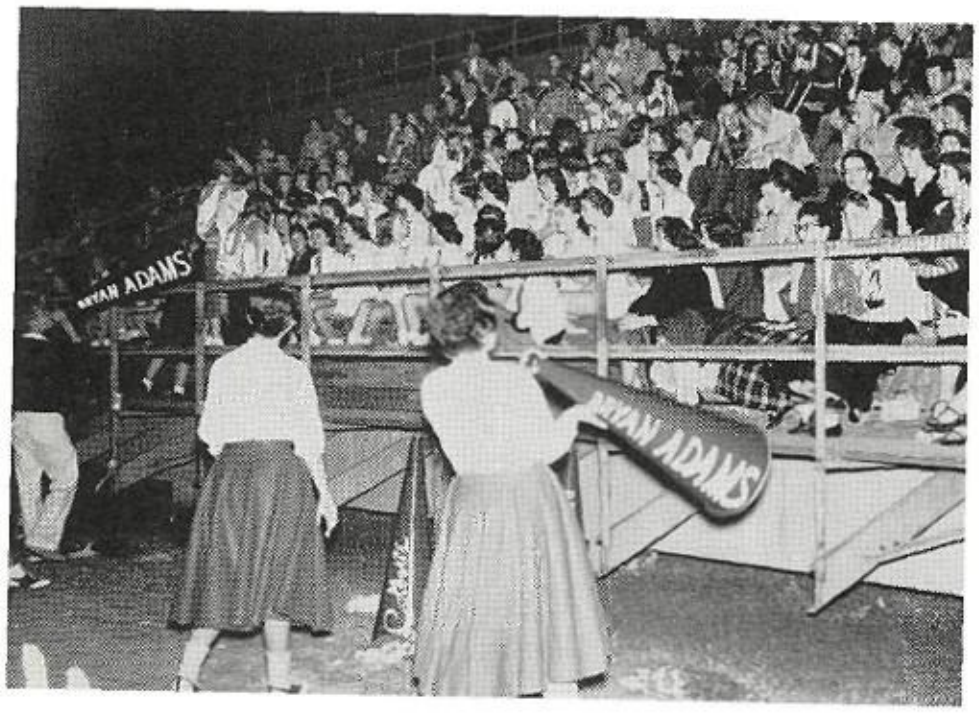
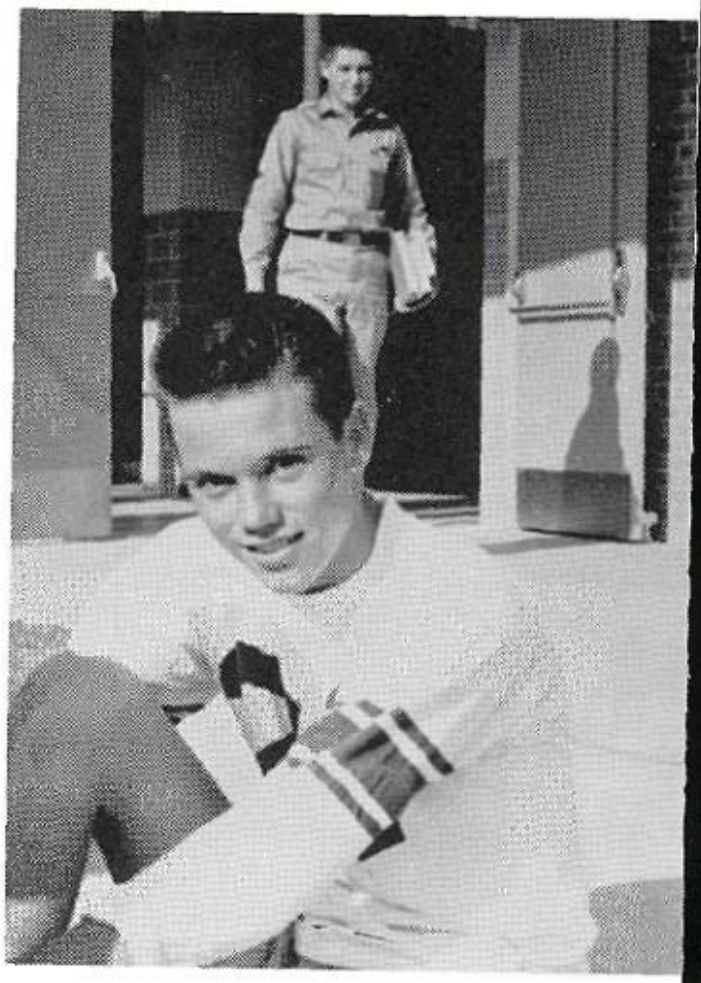
Track Boys at Work

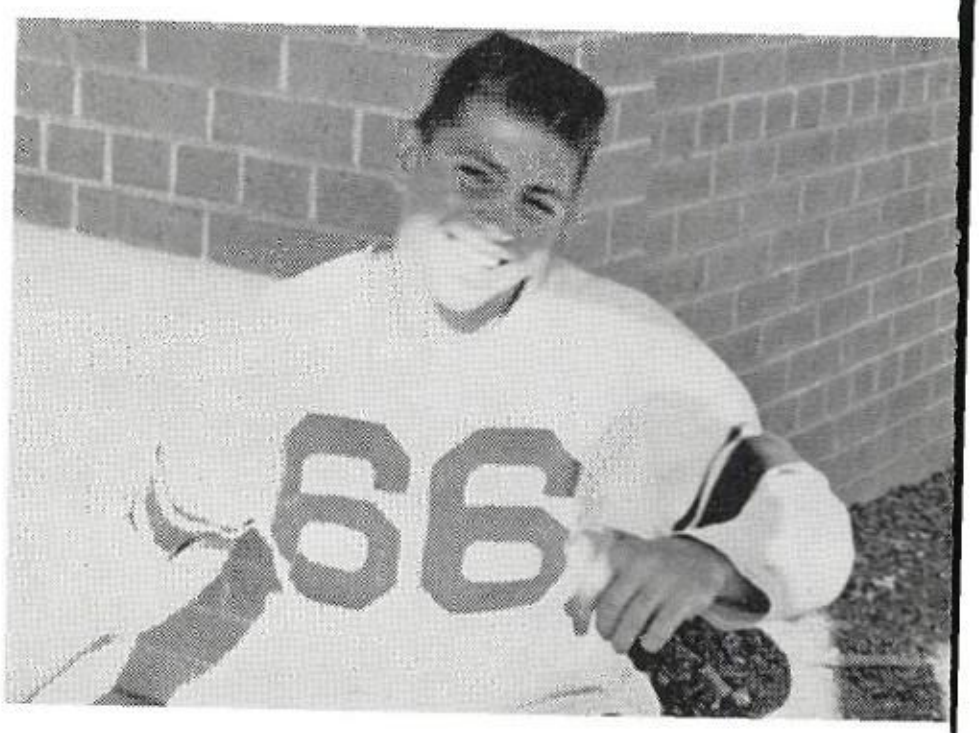


The Adams Cheerleaders lead the Cougars on to victory.



Billy Tillman is in the act of tieing his shoe.

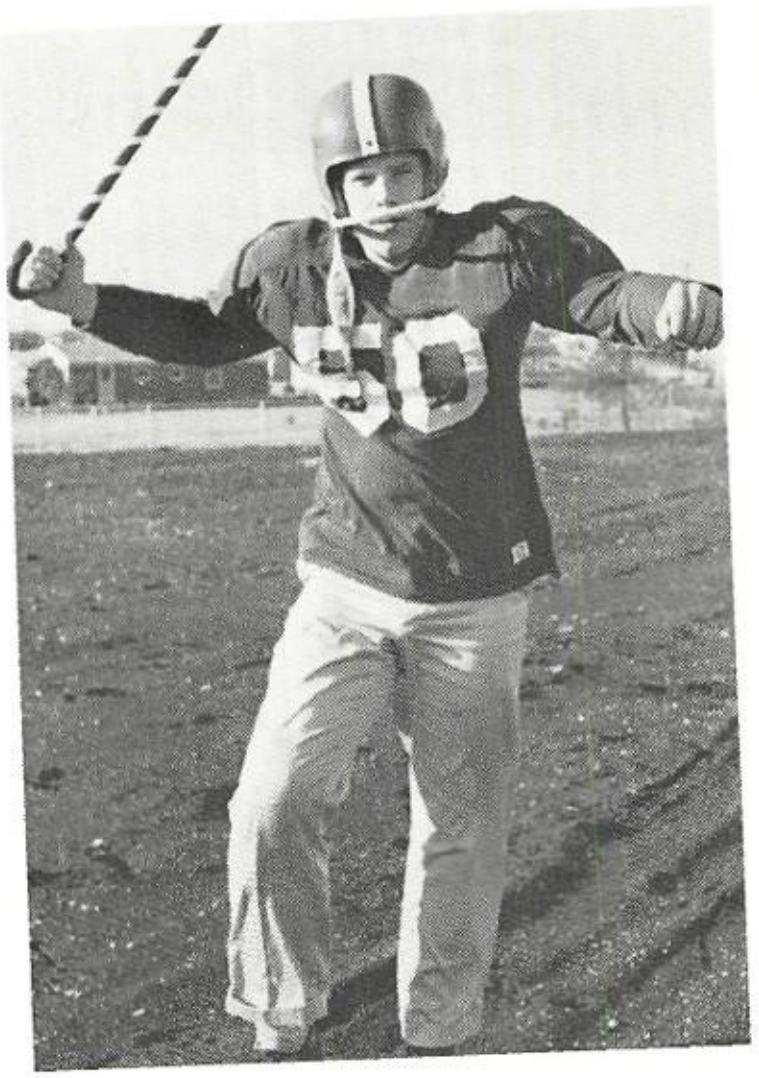
Somebody is going somewhere.



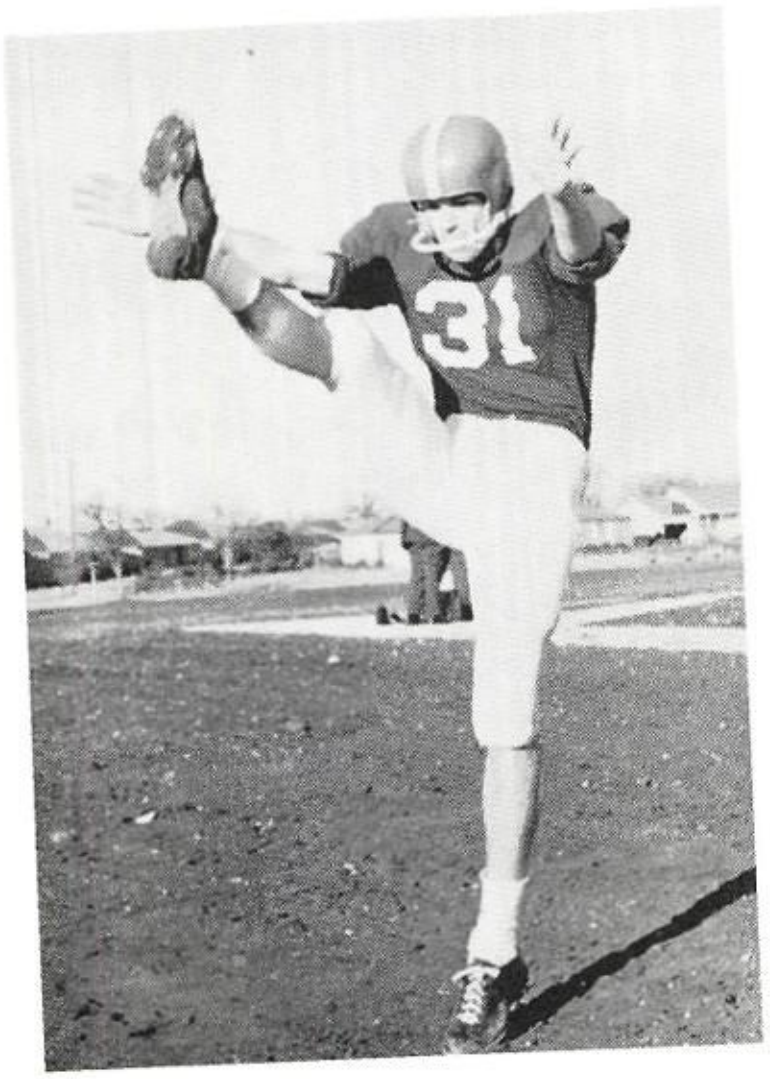
Smiley Dennis Lee poses for a picture for the photographer.

After the game, at the bus, O boy! Congratulations for a game well played and another victory for the Cougars.

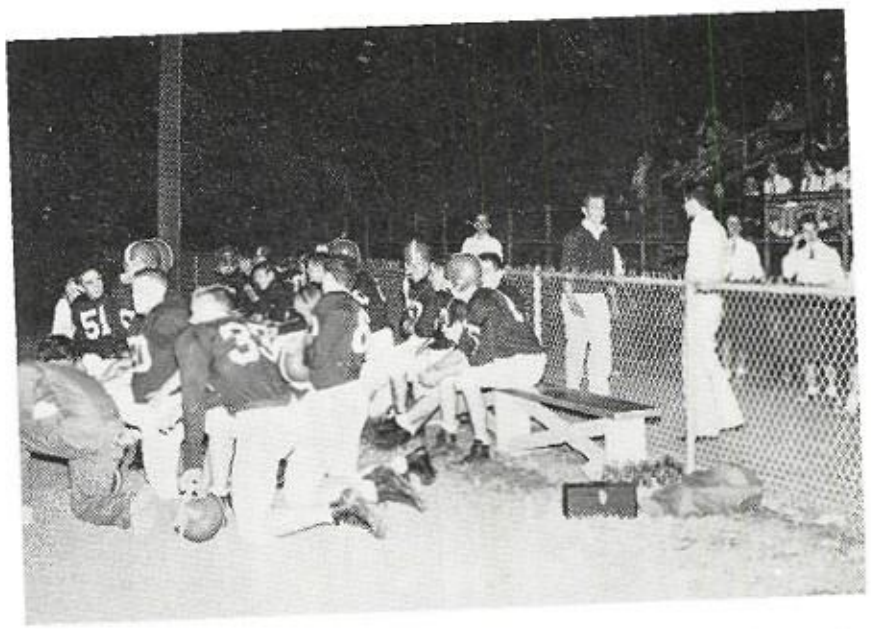
Football Boys at Work and Play



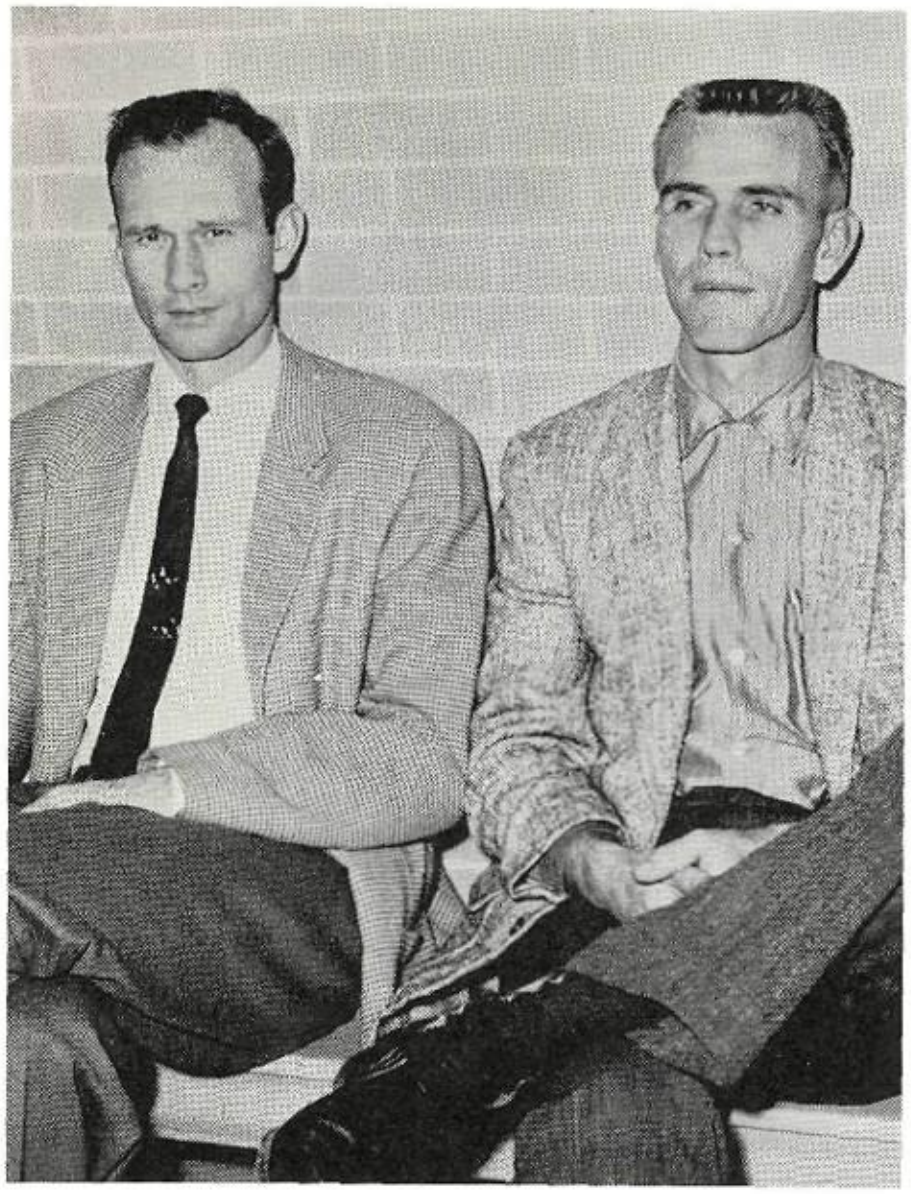
Due to a knee injury in the Samuells game, Kent Henderson is sporting a bright candy striped cane.



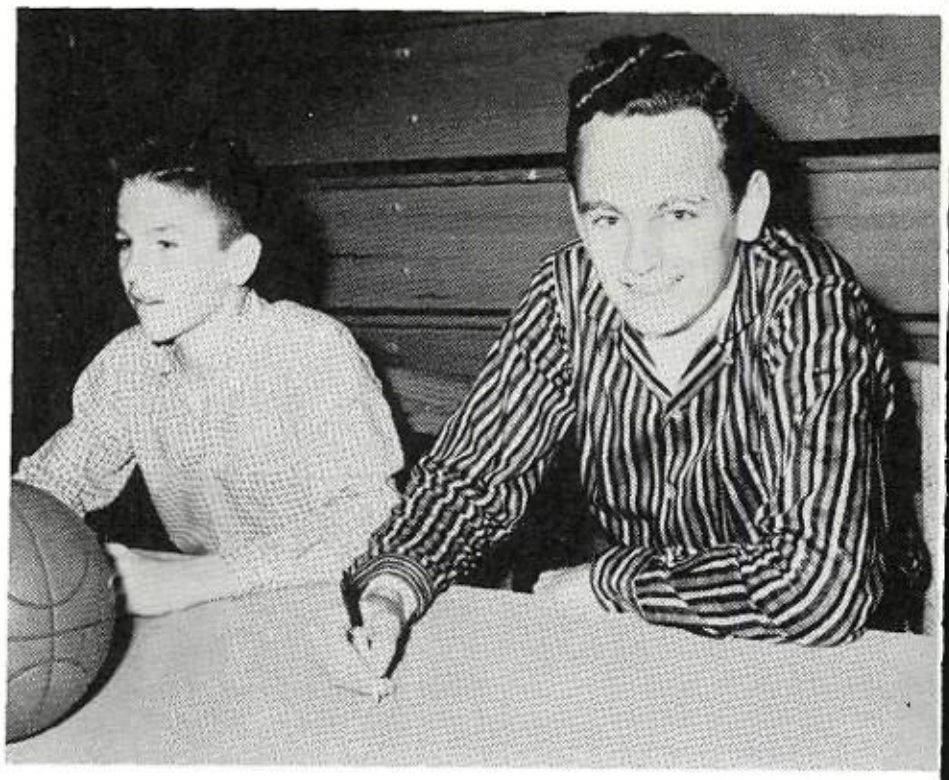
Jim Phillips, all the way up on that toe, to put it over for another extra point . . .



When sitting on the bench, you'll never know who will be next, to go in.

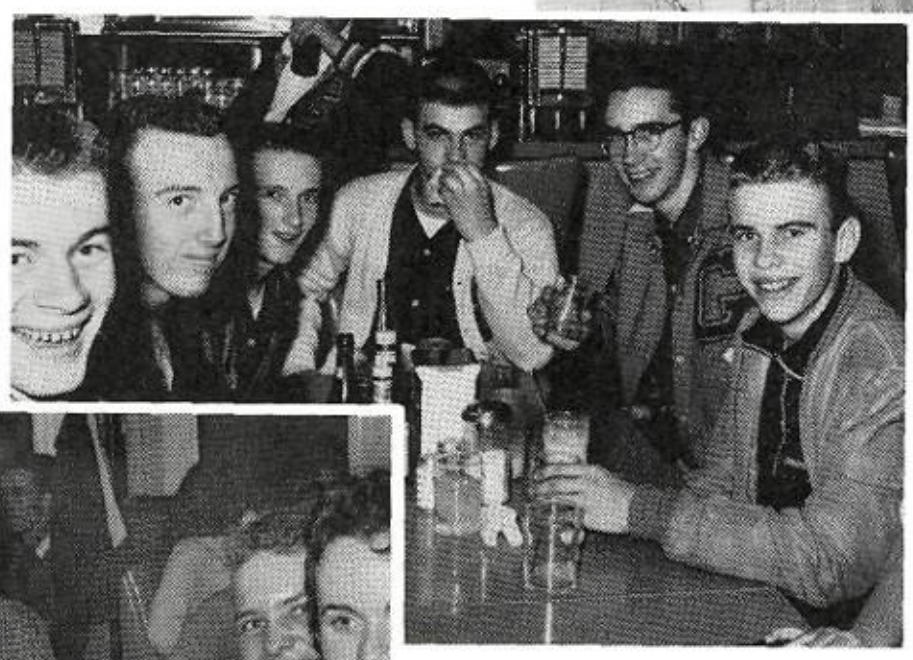


Coach Rowland of the "A" team and Coach Davis of the "B" team seem to be relaxing and enjoying a Cougar practice game.

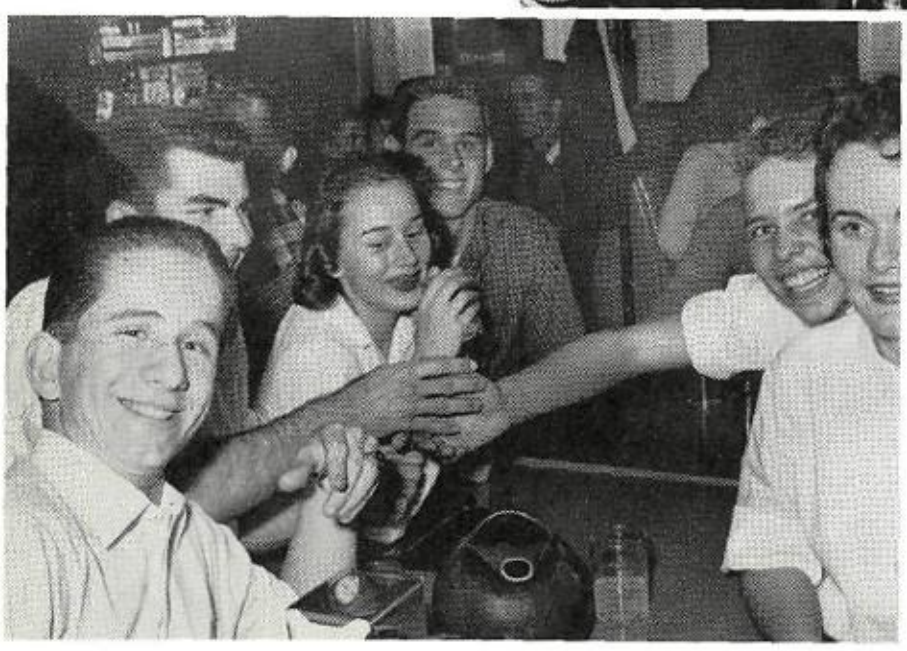


Mark Hoffman and Richard Henry, Managers of the basketball team.

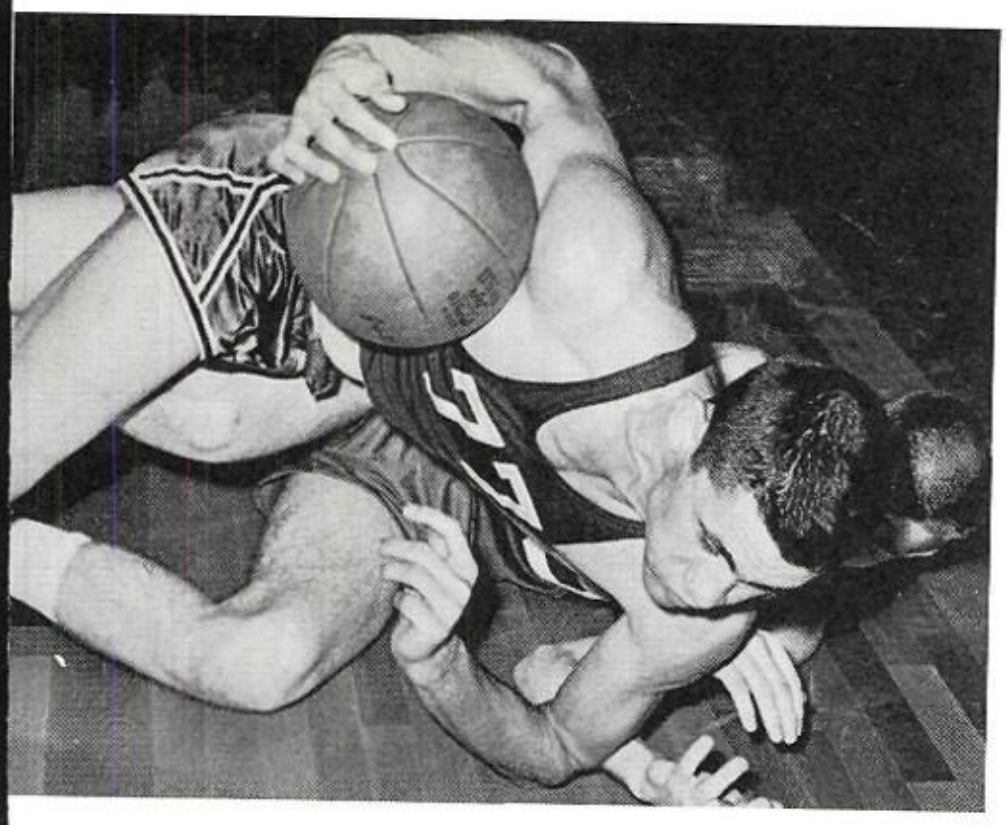
Everyone seems to be having fun, Benny Hale, Kathy Harden, Judy True, and Mike Howard.



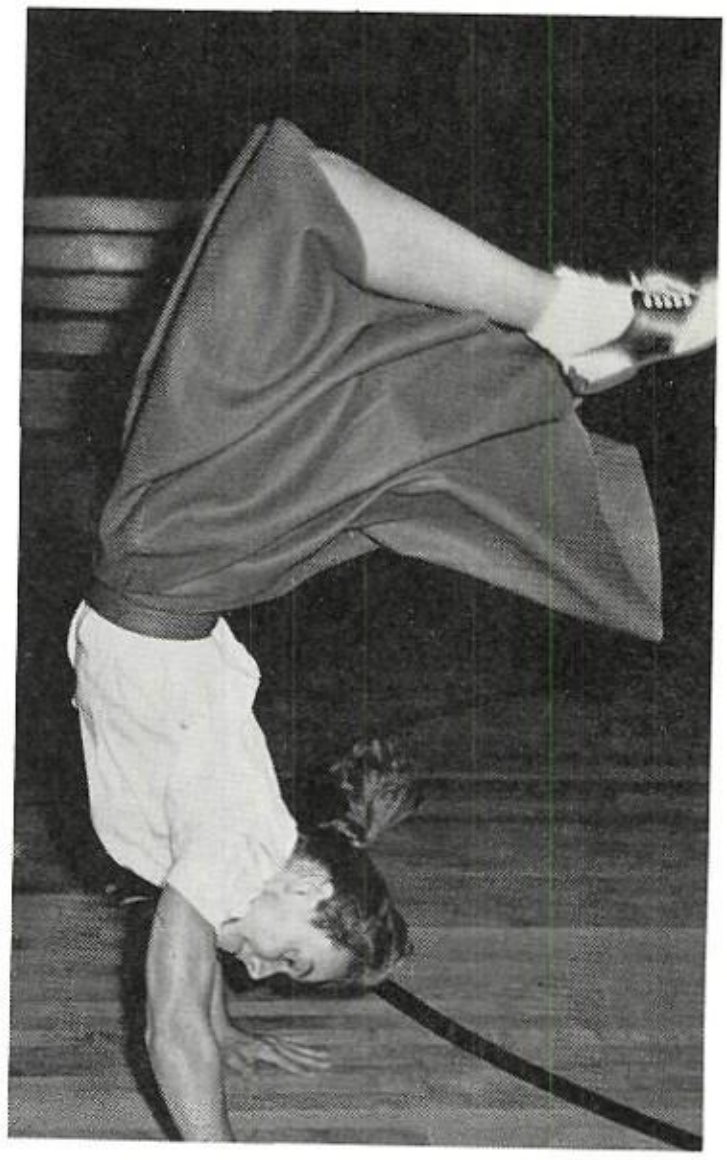
Relaxing after a tough game, Kenny Fletcher, Ivy Conner, Phil Burba, Charles Moore, Joseph Pilliod, and Jerry Woerner



Charlie Blackledge, George Brown, Sandy Kent, Gary Bentley, George Goff, and Jody Lupean seem to be having a party.



A slight pileup in the Plano game



Sandy Kent really flipped over the 1958 Cougar basketball team.

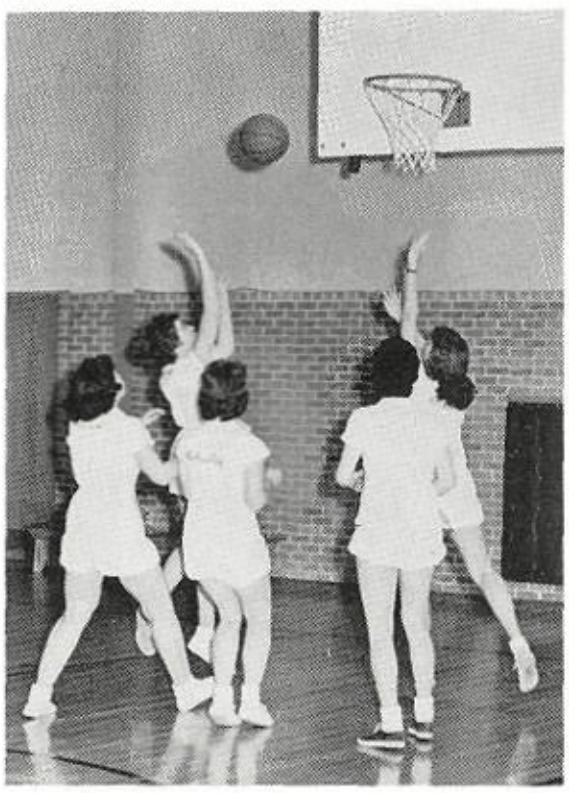
Girl Basketball Champions



One of the exciting moments in one of the basketball games played before school.

The girl basketball champions for 1958 are from fifth period physical education. The captain of the team is Betty Bell. The members are: Sue Channell, Virginia Tucker, Betty Bell, Patti O'Keefe, Pat Penry, Karla Knight, Patsy Hitt, Jo Sue Rhea, Carolyn Davis, Sundra Wise, Barbara Ivey, and Carole Skinner. The girls played all their games before school, except the championship game, which was played March 27, in the afternoon, against Diane Fender's team.

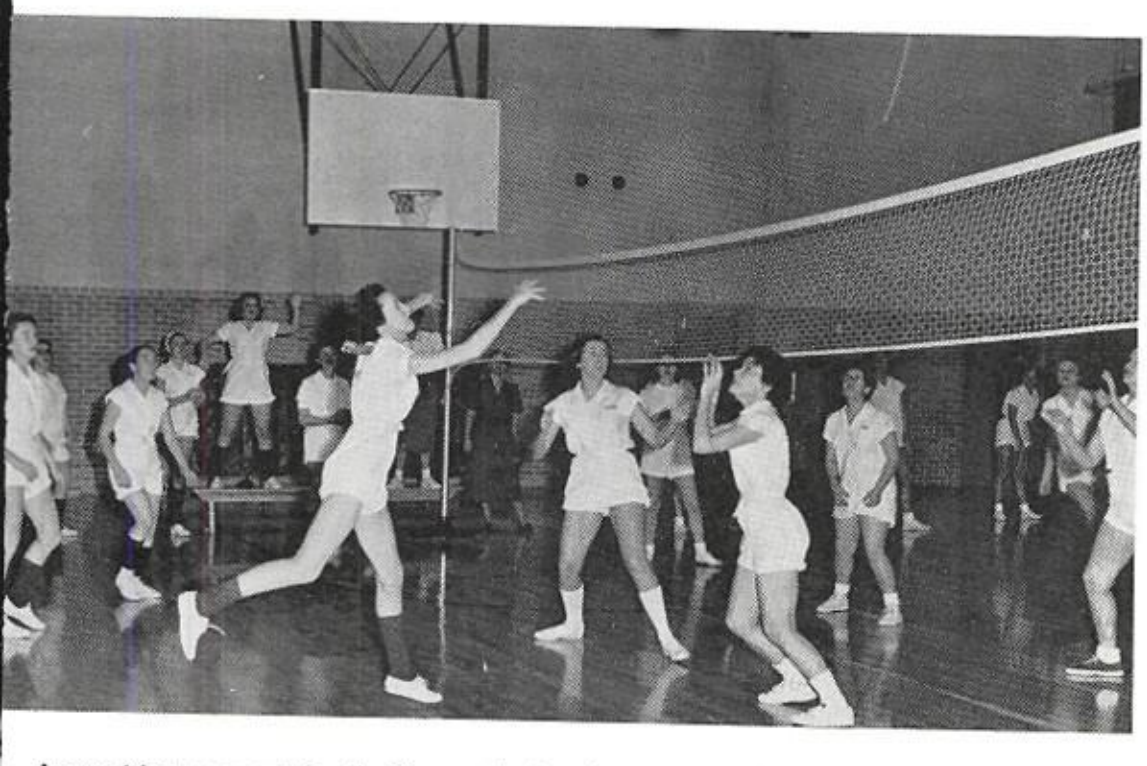
Girl Volleyball Champions



An exciting moment for the Terrors during the game against Jan Marshall's Team.

The Tucker Terrors, captain Virginia Tucker, were the junior girls from the fifth period physical education class. All of the games of the Terrors were played before school. They played teams from the other gym classes. The Terrors were chosen by the other members of the class for their ability.

The purpose of the Bryant Adams Historical Society has been to enrich the members' knowledge of history, to furnish a more vivid cultural background of our nation and the world, and to promote specific interests in this field, gaining a finer and fuller appreciation of our American heritage and our present-day life as well. The Society's emphasis upon scholarship, particularly in its historical category, is exemplified by the fact that all its members maintain honor roll status, consistently, in their study of history.

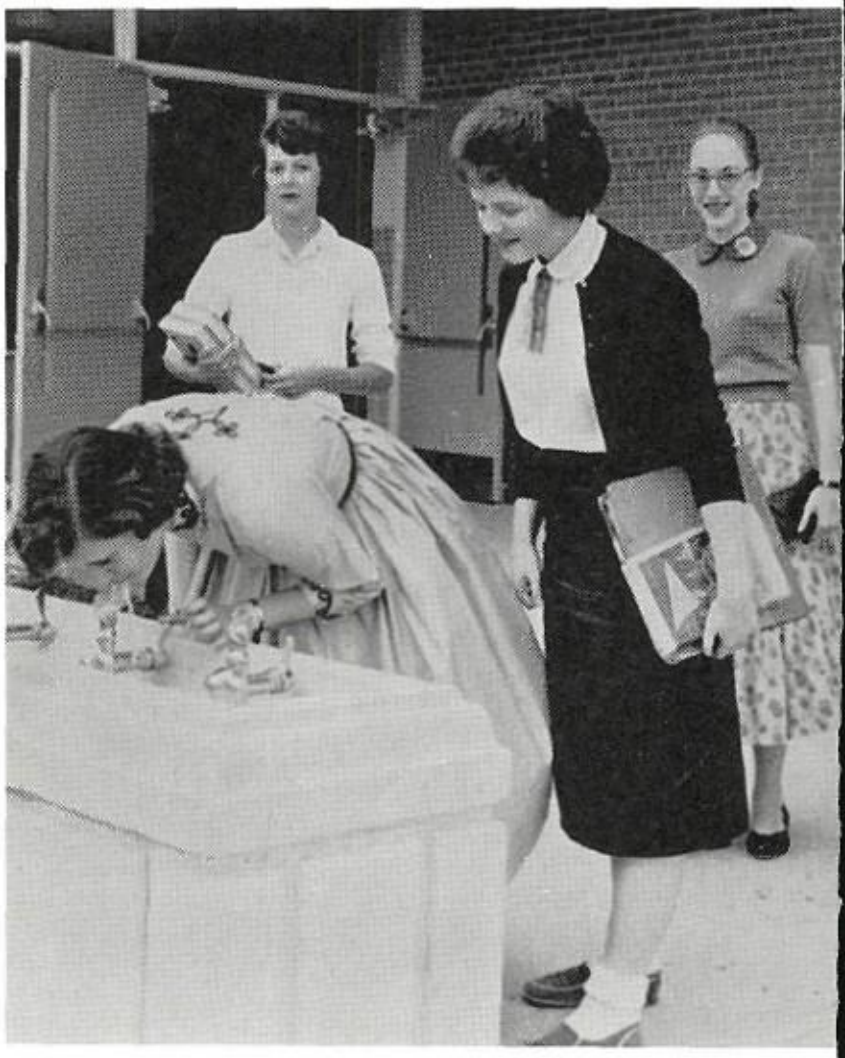
The Annual Sta

Some of the staff attend the Journalism conferences at S.M.U.

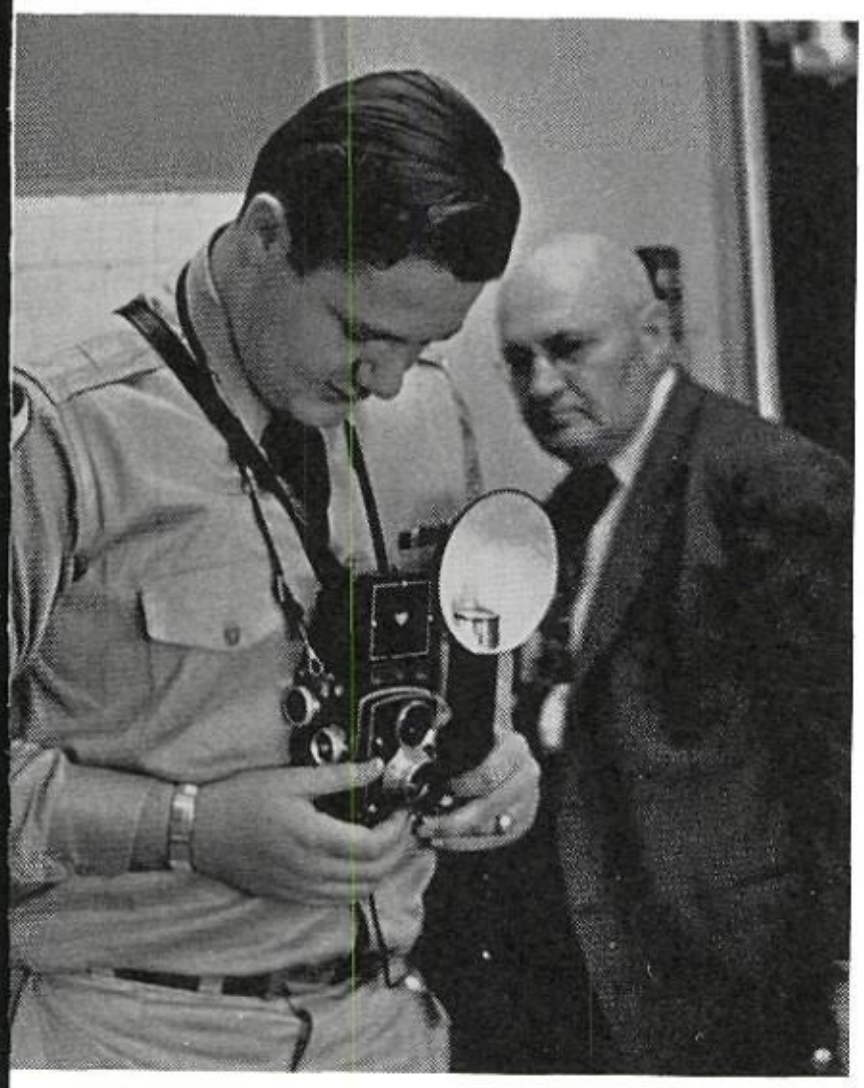


After much hard work some of the staff get a drink of water to refresh them.

Betty Howe and Mary Millender seem to be discussing something. The annual of course.

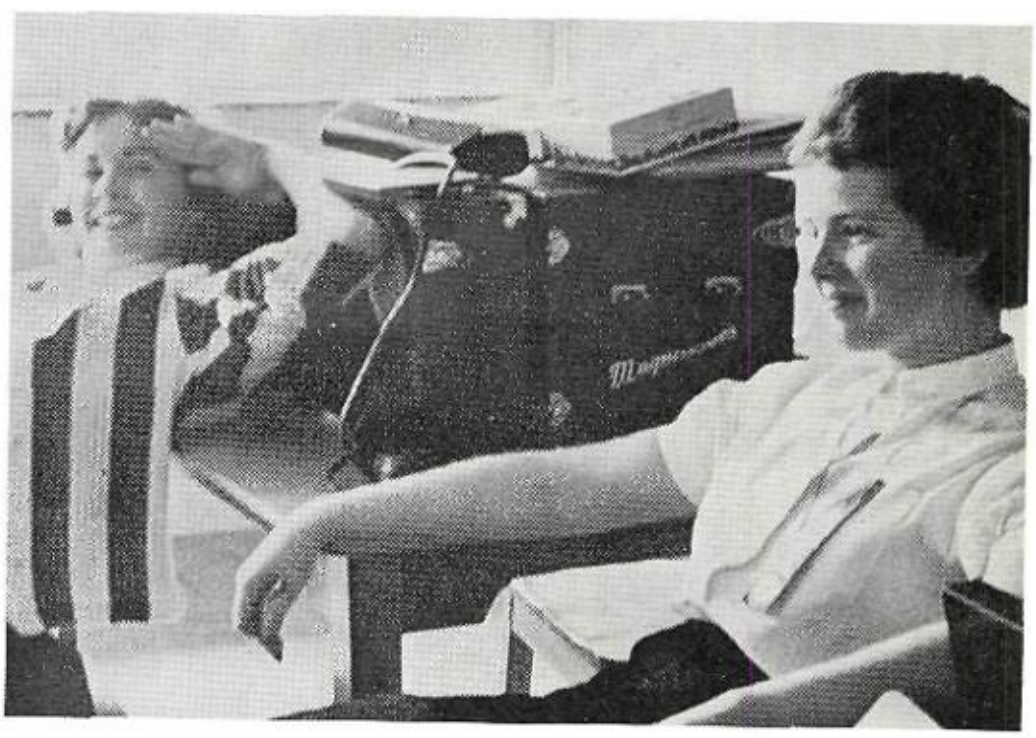
The Conquistador staff poses.

t Work and Play



Jim Verschoyle is having his picture made while he's making a picture. Mr. Tardy in background watches skeptically.

These members of the staff know the deadline is approaching.



Two of our annual staff cheerleaders seem to be resting between layouts.

Something tells me these noises of these girls is not the hum of industry.

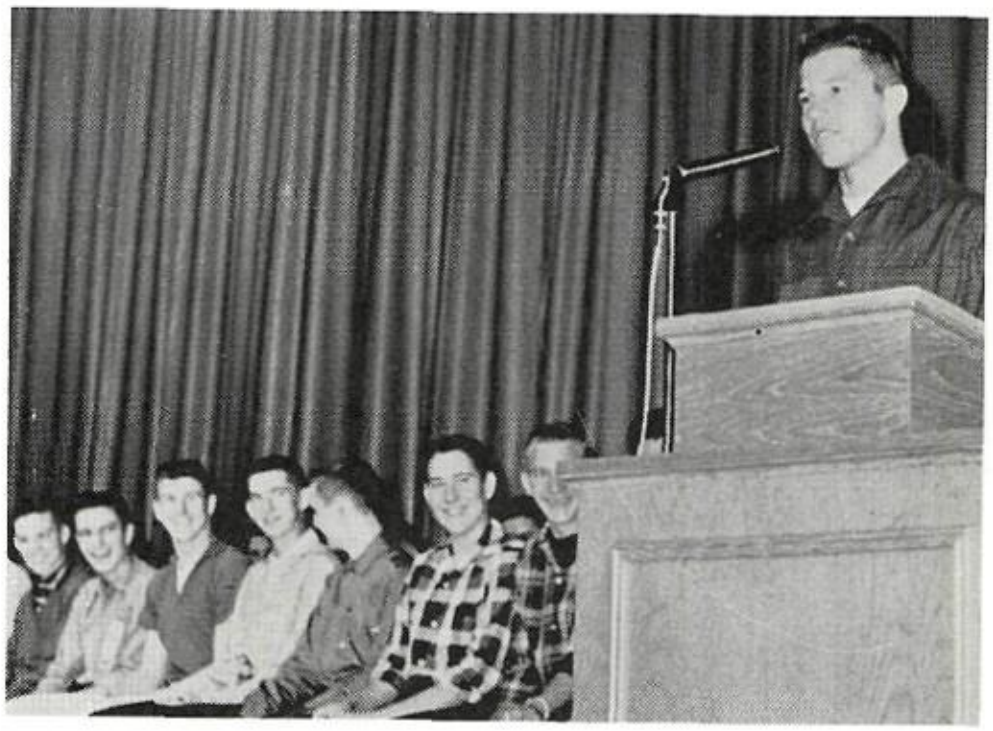
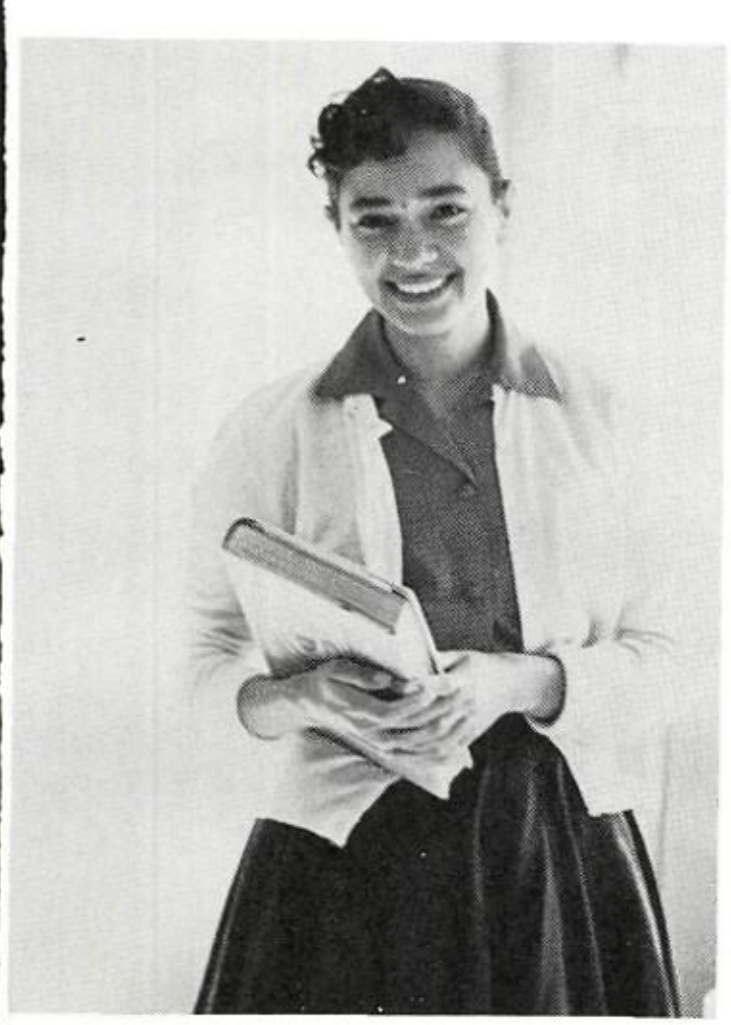
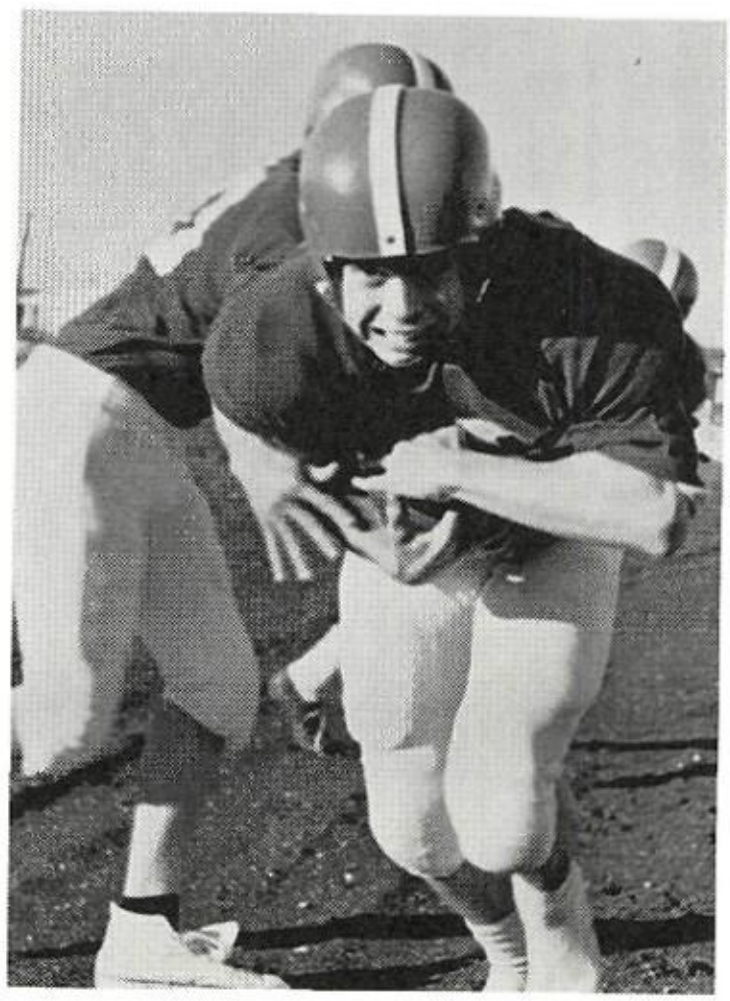
Jim Phillips is practicing for one of the Cougars' all-important football games.



Brave on the football field, but scared on the stage in front of the student body, Bill Matatall, captain of the 1959 Bryan Adams football team.



A visitor from Mexico spoke to the Spanish classes and visited our school for one day.



Pretty tough practice, hey, boys?
